Don't forget Christmas 2012

The next month will be a hugely busy time for all retailers – and not least those in the gift and garden sectors – and many will no doubt be congratulating (or commiserating) their choice of stock as consumers arrive on mass in preparation for Christmas. However, next Christmas should also be high on their agendas as they take note of popular trends and perhaps missed opportunities, before attending Harrogate Christmas & Gift Fair with a product 'wish list'.

Taking place at the Harrogate International Centre from 15th to 18th January 2012, visitors are guaranteed to find everything they could possibly want to stock – as well as some unusual and inspirational new product ideas – with everything from Christmas trees and decorations, to furniture, garden products and gifts for every conceivable occasion. Don't forget to pre-register for the show at www.harrogatefair.com

Sweet luxury

Luxury food items are great add-on gift ranges guaranteed to attract impulse purchases, so visitors to Harrogate Christmas & Gift shouldn't miss some mouth-watering culinary treats from Terra Rossa on stand A32.

Terra Rossa is renowned for its outstanding and Great Taste Award Winning extra virgin olive oils and its beautifully presented gift packs make sophisticated alternatives to a traditional selection box of chocolates at Christmas – or indeed any other occasion. These contain the highest quality first cold pressed extra virgin olive oils infused with fabulous flavours such as lemon, basil, mint, chilli and garlic providing an explosion of sensations to the taste buds.

In addition, Terra Rossa also has beautifully presented sweet ranges including manna from heaven, sugar almonds and exquisite traditional Jordanian nougat. Individually wrapped and presented in elegant traditional draw string see-through bags topped with traditional Jordanian cloth, few will be able to resist the unique Arabian flavours of these truly scrumptious mixtures of almonds and pistachio nuts embedded in manna or nougat.

Safe electrics

Keeping temporary electrical connections dry and safe is essential for every occasion throughout the year and Festive Lights DRiBOX is a must have stock accessory for retailers in numerous markets. Visit the company's stand CO9 at Harrogate Christmas & Gift Fair to view the latest launch, the DRiBOX 200 which is the smallest in the range and ideal for providing a safe environment for single socket extension leads as its small size ensures that it remains discrete. Festive Lights is also launching the DRiBOX Combo which comprises all three boxes from the DRiBOX range nested together, providing the ultimate solution when safely connecting a number of electrical connections in a number of locations. The DRiBOX range is all IP55 rated against dust and water ingress, keeping all temporary connections safe and dry making them a perfect accessory for Christmas lighting, garden lighting and appliances, plus aquatics. Also, don't miss the company's fabulous selection of festive lights!
