

Shopper's delight

Day two of the show was once again greeted with enthusiasm by the visitors attending today. Among these were buyers from garden centres from around the country, department stores, independent gift retailers, visitor attraction shops and event organisers to name just a few. They were certainly spoiled for choice when seeking new and exciting products to brighten their shelves in the run up to Christmas 2023. With seven halls of the Convention centre packed to the brim.

As well as the bread and butter Christmas ranges from trees, garlands, lights and decorations, there are plenty of interesting new gift ideas which are guaranteed to wow consumers later in the year.

If you haven't already had the chance to visit – the halls are open again tomorrow (Tuesday 17th) from 9am to 6pm and Wednesday 9am to 4pm. Visit the website at www.harrogatefair.com for more information.

Bespoke gifts

Based at the gateway to the Snowdonia national park in North Wales, the Stands Out team design manufacture and import a huge range of handmade accessories including bracelets, necklaces, toys, anklets, rings, earrings, tattoos, keyrings, and party bag favours.

Bracelet line, and custom wooden header and back boards for the stand itself. All will be printed with your company's name and logo.

Visit Stands Out on Stand C8

Unique spaces

Walton & Co are creators of beautiful table linens, soft furnishings & nursery gifts. We supply independent home & gift retailers, garden centres and department stores in the UK and Europe whose customers seek style, newness and lasting quality.

The company's well-travelled design team have honed their expertise in assessing future trends in fashion, culture and interiors and translating these into collections for the home that combine functionality with on-trend looks. The latest collections are inspired by living, eating and entertaining and are informal, inside or outside to reflect this mood so that you can create unique spaces in which to relax.

Visit Walton & Co on Stand A12

Traditional festivity

Holy night from Boltze incorporates cream, grey and khaki green bringing contemporary spirit into tradition. This gorgeous range includes classic and traditional materials such as ceramics, coloured metals, coloured glass with key pieces including Santa figures, decorative pendants, tableware with motifs – all making a great match for the country cottage style.

Visit Boltze on Stand M25