

Sneak preview

Every year, Harrogate Christmas & Gift sees the launch of not just amazing new products, but sometimes the introduction of new traditions which families around the UK are eager to adopt; plus top trends to keep Santa on his toes. This year appears to be no exception. Exhibitors have been busy sending us details of some of the fabulous ranges they will be bringing and these weekly newsletters give you a taste of what to expect at the show.

If you have industry colleagues who haven't already registered, don't forget to forward this email to them so they can sign up early for themselves to avoid the queue!

SAVE THE DATE: Whilst planning your visit, don't forget to factor in the After Show Party straight after the show on Monday 12th January 2026. This much anticipated event will once again take place in the beautiful Royal Hall with music, free drinks and food. Everyone, both exhibitors and visitors, are welcome.

Crafting memories

The Handmade Christmas Co has been transforming festive traditions since its founding in 2012 and will be exhibiting at Harrogate for the very first time. What began as a modern twist on the traditional Christmas stocking has evolved into a brand known and loved by over one million customers around the globe. Over the years, the company has poured its passion into product development, working from its London base to create all manner of festive goods that help customers craft new memories and traditions with their loved ones.

The Handmade Christmas Co will be showcasing its range of handmade Christmas crackers (with over 25 trend-led designs, and a choice of nine different content options), its trademarked North Pole Collection and a beautiful range of Christmas candles.
