

Merry Christmas

With just days until you open the final window on your advent calendar, the Harrogate Christmas & Gift team wishes you all a happy and healthy Christmas 2022. We hope that you enjoy some down time to relax with family and friends ready to arrive at the show in January with fully recharged batteries.

Look out for our newsletters between now and the show which will give you a heads up on some of the great new products you can expect to see – and if you have industry colleagues who may not be aware of the show, be sure to forward this together with the registration link – it's free to attend!

Stocking winner

If you are looking for something a bit different and bespoke to give away as grotto gifts, be sure to check out Christmas themed books from Daydream Publications. Complete with a story, puzzles, games, stickers and lots of festive fun, these are sure fire winners with kids of all ages. The best bit is that these can be branded with your company logo on the front and a full-page advert on the back cover.

Starting at just 72p per book, these are great value items either for giving out in the grotto or as a treat to keep kids entertained whilst waiting to see the big guy!
