Co-ordinating textiles

Local and well-loved North Yorkshire designers Walton & Co will launch its new Christmas home textiles collections at Harrogate.

Into the Woods, features a dancing palette of its most loved flora and fauna, and returns this year in a new olive trim colourway. There is a full kitchen and table linen range in 100% cotton with co-ordinating napkins, placemats and handcrafted items that complete a sophisticated and earthy look for the home. Extending this to consider the whole home, a carefully curated selection of cushions, throws and rugs styles with the table and kitchen linens beautifully.
