Start planning your visit to Harrogate Christmas & Gift 2027

With just a few months to go, preparations are well underway for Harrogate Christmas & Gift 2027, taking place from 10–13 January, and there's plenty to look forward to.

Bringing together a fantastic collection of exhibitors, the show is a must-visit for retailers, buyers, visitor attractions, heritage centres, department stores and anyone sourcing exciting new products for the year ahead. From Christmas, Easter and Halloween collections to home and garden accessories, seasonal decorations and gifts for every occasion, there's an enormous variety of products to discover, offering inspiration and buying opportunities across a wide range of retail sectors.

This is the first in a series of weekly newsletters designed to help you make the most of your visit. Each week, we'll be putting the spotlight on a selection of our exhibitors, giving you a preview of the products, collections and ideas they'll be bringing to Harrogate. There's also plenty of fresh talent to discover, with almost 20 companies exhibiting at the show for the very first time.

So, whether you're looking to refresh your ranges, discover new suppliers or find that next big seller, make sure you keep an eye on our weekly updates and start planning your visit! For more information, visit the website at www.harrogatefair.com

Crowd pleaser

Lotus is a UK leading wholesaler of artificial and real touch flowers, foliage, trees and seasonal décor, with over 40 years' experience supplying retailers across the UK. This Christmas, the company plans to stand out from the crowd with its unique and distinctive festive collections, giving a competitive edge with distinctive products that set them apart from the crowd!

Lotus' 2027 range features premium real touch wreaths, garlands, berries, pics, light-up ornaments, handmade creatures and fairies, giant bells and baubles to list a few… With distinctive designs, competitive wholesale prices and its 5-star friendly service, Lotus looks forward to welcoming you to its stand.

Visit Lotus on Stand G16

For every occasion

Puckator is a leading wholesale supplier of giftware, home décor, and lifestyle products, with over 30 years of experience supplying retailers across Europe.

At Harrogate, the company will be showcasing its seasonal ranges, including its brand-new Christmas collections and festive licensed lines such Peanuts, Moomin or Pusheen. You'll also discover our spooky Halloween range, charming Valentine's Day collections, and fresh Easter and Springtime selections, along with many other seasonal favourites designed to drive footfall and boost sales.

Visit us to explore the full range in person and find out how Puckator can help your business stand out and thrive throughout the year.

Visit Puckator on Stand C13

Curated collections

Widdop & Co. will be showcasing its Christmas 2027 ranges at Harrogate Christmas & Gift, giving retailers the opportunity to discover key trends, newness and commercial opportunities for the season ahead. Explore highlights from 32 curated collections and more than 2,500 brand-new products, spanning gifting, keepsakes, statement decorations, seasonal homewares and licensed ranges from Disney, Harry Potter and Warner Bros.

Backed by more than 140 years of experience in gifting and homewares, our team will be on hand to support buyers with range planning, product selection and seasonal opportunities.

Visit us at the show to discover the latest ranges and exclusive show offers.

Visit Widdop & Co on Stand QS2