

New Hall G proves a big hit

Harrogate Christmas & Gift opened its doors today for the 75th year today and visitors and buyers turned up in in large numbers to see the latest new products that the festive industry has to offer. Exhibitors and buyers were invited to a fabulous celebratory Sunday night party in the Royal Hall with free drinks and canapes, plus live entertainment from The Song Collectives.

This year is a bumper show with nine halls of the Harrogate Convention Centre packed with products of all descriptions. The new Hall G proved particularly popular with visitors flocking to see Kaemingk BV in its new location, with a bigger stand than ever before. The company boasts a huge selection of artificial Christmas trees, Christmas lighting, Christmas dinnerware, decorations, artificial plants and much more.

Also in Hall G is new exhibitor CB Imports, one of Britain's largest importers of artificial flowers and giftware; Calipso, distributor of floral packaging; and Penny Kennedy/Ling Design/ and The Great British Card Company with a range of premium cards, advent calendars and packaging. Other exhibitors in Hall G include Weiste, Widdop & Co and Lotus Imports.

Hall Q has also proved a popular destination with long-standing exhibitor Smart Garden Products attracting numerous buyers with its exciting and diverse product ranges. Also, APAC with a range of innovative Christmas decorations and accessories; plus Portland Fir, a new exhibitor to the show on Stand Q13 presenting a stunning range of premium pre-lit Christmas trees and pre-dressed Christmas trees at excellent prices. Jane Tidey and her friendly team look forward to presenting their products to the industry for the duration of the show.
