

Look forward to seeing you on Sunday

The doors to Harrogate Christmas & Gift open tomorrow and this year promises to be a bigger and better show than ever before. Now a firm favourite with retailers and buyers in the Christmas, gift, garden, leisure and visitor attraction sectors, the show has grown significantly in recent years and we promise you an action packed few days with plenty to see and do. We can guarantee that you will not only leave with lots of exciting new products to entice your customers in 2016, but will have the chance to make important new industry contacts – as well as the chance to let your hair down and enjoy some fun too.

Don't forget to come along to the show's free drinks and networking event which takes place at 6pm on Monday 11th straight after the show in the Royal Hall of the Harrogate International Centre. This event replaces the Monday night party of previous years in the Majestic Hotel and is open to everyone – exhibitors and visitors alike.

We look forward to welcoming you to the show!

Gifts from the West Country

CGB Giftware is a family run business supplying independent and multiple retailers around the world with unique and exciting giftware designed in Cornwall.

Harrogate Christmas & Gift will be the first chance to see its new and exciting Christmas range for 2016. With its biggest Christmas range to date, almost 600 products, the company can't wait to show you what it's been working on.
